

I signed up with Unice1 for a cellphone and the service was poor. I shared my concerns when I got it because of my location on the edge of their service area. When I received a large bill they encouraged me to switch to a more expensive plan. I paid all my bills on time except the $150 early termination fee. They did not deliver as per the contract.